The music of life surrounds us all--we have only to listen. It can be heard in raindrops marking time on the roof, in the honking laughter of ducks in a pond, in the lolling drone of a boring lecturer, or in the vibrant tones of a crowded cafeteria.

Music is the rhythm of life speaking in the language of song. It speaks in songs which reflect the human condition, calling us to awareness, and in those which capture our deepest thoughts and feelings, voicing them for all the world to hear. Music is a part of life, a part of us. Listen and follow...

Dear Graduates,

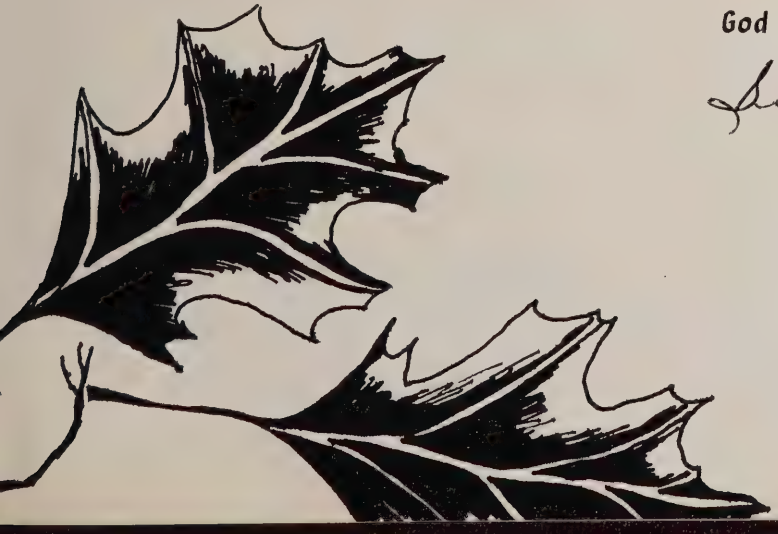

At some future time, when in a mood of nostalgia, you page through 'LA ROCHE'74' many of the incidentals will be amusingly outdated. However, the theme of MUSIC will remain timeless, while it serves as a unique mirror of the era. You may recall a popular composer, who through cacophony and dissonance, portrayed the confused ideology, the rebellion, ambivalence and 'againstness' of the age, and remember, too, the great music which is always the aesthetic expression of the deepest human emotions, regardless of the tenor of the times. The ability to discriminate, to understand, and to choose is part of learning and maturing.

When some day you reminisce about the year you received your baccalaureate degree, you may only vaguely remember Watergate, the energy crisis, the critical concern about pollution and survival and the many conflicts which surfaced in your senior year. But the theme of your yearbook will be as timely then as now as it brings to mind the plans you made, the values you cherished, and the friends you loved.

May beautiful music follow you down the road of life, sounding hope and peace, love and faith leading to God Who speaks through the music of the wind and wave, the sunrise and the starlight, the songs of the birds, and the voice of friends, everyday and everywhere.

God bless and keep you always!

If I could save time in a bottle
The first thing that I'd like to do
Is to save everyday till eternity passed away
Just to spend them with you.
If I make days last forever
If words could make wishes come true
I'd save everyday like a treasure and then Again I would spend them with you.
But there never seems to be enough
time to do
The things you want to do once you find them
I've looked around enough to know that you're the one
I want to go through time with.
If I had a box just for wishes
And dreams that had never come true
The box would be empty except for the memory
Of how they were answered by you
But there never seems to be enough
time to do
The things you want to do once you find them
I've looked around enough to know that you're the one
I want to go through time with

Life -- so they say
Is but a game and they let it slip away
Love -- like the Autumn sun
Should be dying but it's only just begun
Like the twilight in the road up ahead
They don't see just where we're goin'
And all the secrets in the universe
Whisper in our ears and all the years will come and go
And take us up always up.

We may never pass this way again.
We may never pass this way again.
We may never pass this way again.

Dreams -- so they say
Are for the fools and they let them drift away.
Peace -- like the silent dove
Should be flyin' but it's only just begun
Like Columbus in the olden days
We must gather all our courage
Sail our ships out on the open sea
Cast away our fears and all the years will come and go
And take us up - always up.

We may never pass this way again.
We may never pass this way again.
We may never pass this way again.

There's a cloud in the sky,
And it's raining on you
Still you try to keep dry
But your troubles leak through
And you've lost all you could,
Feeling sad choose your reveries
Keep the good leave the bad
Take a few of these,
The sweeter memories
Don't forget them please,
The sweeter memories
To set your mind at ease,
The truest remedies
Are the sweeter memories
There's a life full of pain
And a life full of glee
So you see that the rain
Doesn't mean much to me
For I know that it pays
Making light of livings tragedies
Take a few of these
The sweeter memories.

TO THE GRADUATES OF 1974:

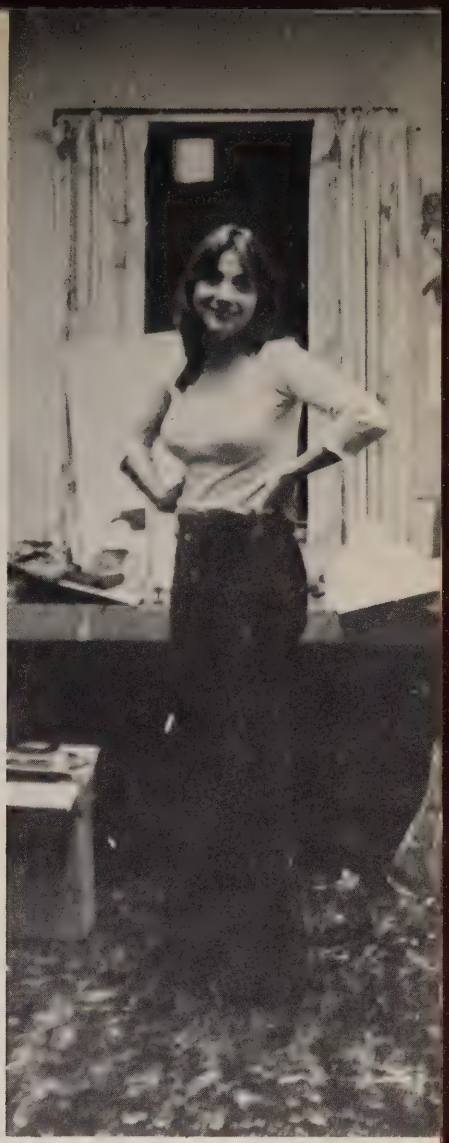

Permit me to borrow a theme in order to express my wishes.
''I have a dream'' that one day you will live in a world where all people will seek peace, rather than expanding borders, ideological dominance, or control of natural resources.
I have a dream that one day you will live in a country where all those in authority will be admirable and responsible, rather than smug, dishonest, bigoted, or nationalistic.
I have a dream that Abraham Lincoln, John Kennedy, Robert Kennedy and Martin Luther King will not have lived or died in vain; that vision, courage and idealism will exhilarate your being and your actions.
I have a dream that one day people will be judged not by their race, nationality, religion, occupation, gender, nor age, but rather by the quality of their character.
I have a dream that you will treasure an insatiable thirst for learning, a perpetual quest for morality and values, and a commitment to truth and beauty.
I have a dream that you will build a life of honor, a life of personal integrity won slowly by a lifetime of small decisions where you place the virtues of justice and compassion ahead of conformity and personal advancement.

I have a dream that you will have peace and love all the days of your life.

Most sincerely,
M. Daniel Henry

Well now that you have read this book
And have come towards the end,
Perhaps you will appreciate the time we've had to spend,
And all the work we've had to do
To plan and print this book for you.
We have worked till all hours,
Without a bite to eat.
And when we'd leave to get a bite,
We'd find a page that wasn't right.
But eating wasn't all our care,
There were a thousand more.
We worried till we had gray hair,
At times we even swore.
We wondered if it would ever come,
The time when all our work was done.
The copy never would come in,
The pictures were behind,
We thought we didn't have the dough,
We nearly lost our minds.
But struggled through until at last,
We hoped our worries all are past.
For here's a little limerick
We'd like to leave behind
We're sure that it will give to you,
A picture that we know is true. . .

The printer gets the money,
The engraver gets the fame,
The class gets all the credit,
While the staff gets all the blame!
